

2021 50-Day Spiritual Journey of Joy

Devotions – Week 3

Saturday, February 27 – Read John 6:32-40

Questions for Meditation

1. What does Jesus say He is? How does He satisfy? What does this mean for you?
2. What are the blessings for those who believe in Him?

Pray – Thank Jesus for giving you eternal life, and that you are His and He is yours. Ask Him to be your source of vitality and nutrition – come to Him to satisfy your hunger and thirst.

Sunday, February 28 – Read Isaiah 55:1-9

Questions for Meditation

1. What is the invitation in verses 1 & 3 and who is it for?
2. What does God promise to give to those who come? Can you trust Him?

Pray – Praise God for who He is and acknowledge that He is far above and beyond us. Ask Him for mercy, seek after Him, and thank Him for giving you the best.

Monday, March 1 – Read Psalm 63

Questions for Meditation

1. What does David want? How does he feel? What does he find in his relationship with God? (vs.7-8)
2. David's life was threatened. What confidence does he find in the justice God will bring? (vs.9-11)

Pray – Pray this Psalm out loud making it personal. Praise God for His love, joy, security, and justice. Give Him the situations of life that are unfair and trust Him to bring the victory.

Tuesday, March 2 – Read Romans 2:1-11

Questions for Meditation

1. Do we have the right to accuse or condemn others? Why not?
2. How does this passage show that God is a God of justice and also a God of kindness? Who will miss his wrath and who will face it?

Pray – Thank God for His kindness that leads us to repent of our sins and turn to Him. Confess and repent of times where you have judged others and ignored your own condition before God. Ask Him to bring those you love and know to saving faith and to use you as His messenger.

Wednesday, March 3 – Read 2 Thessalonians 1:3-10

Questions for Meditation

1. What is the situation of those Paul is writing to in this letter?
2. What does he promise them that God will do in regard to their situation?

Pray – Thank God for Christians whose faith is flourishing and who love one another. Pray for Christians who are enduring great persecution and hardships, that they will be strong and know God's rest and trust Him for justice. Thank God for them and ask Him to guide you in the hardships of this life to always look to Him, praise Him and declare His truth.

Thursday, March 4 – Read Amos 5:21-24, Micah 6:8

Questions for Meditation

1. What does God say He hates? What does He want to see?
2. What has God said is good and what does He require?

Pray – Ask God to help you be fair and just as you interact with others and confess and repent to Him where you have not. Ask Him to help you do what is right, love mercy and walk humbly with Him.

Be on the lookout each day for ways to stand against injustice in our world.

Friday, March 5 – Read Matthew 5:7

Questions for Meditation

1. Mercy is showing kindness to those in distress. How have others shown you this kindness? How can you show this kindness today?
2. As you give mercy you will be shown mercy. Have you seen this to be true in your life? Think of ways it has happened and ways you can continue the circle of mercy.

Pray – Thank God for His mercy to you. Ask Him to help you be kind and merciful to others today.
